Program-

Jan S. presented on QOV Month. Since our CBQ have started, there has been 119 quilts presented. There are 12 completed quilts on hand. Plans to do presentation at 1 nursing home in Ashland and possibly more.

She showed the QOV website and navigation for members. She explained how to renew individual memberships online. Jan also discussed donations to QOV and the current Panel QOV challenge. There are 2 donated panels. A oommittee was formed to work on the challenges. There is great amount fabrics for more quilts. Tammy Callahan from "Quilting Up North" sponsors the group's membership for the national organization and also quilts free for several quilts per year. Jan suggested that CBQ give a complementary membership for her support to the group.

All attending approved doing this for Tammy.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:25PM.

Next meeting- Feb.1,2022- The “metallic challenge” will be due for this meeting.
