

CBQ Minutes ~ August 6, 2019

5:30--President Jan Benson called the meeting to order.

Membership—27 members present

Secretary's Report—July minutes were posted on the web site.

Treasurer's Report—Lynne D. reported a total of $7,678.97 in the account, which includes the cushion of $300 for Guild, a $154 pending QOV reimbursement, and $2,155.00 in pre-payments for the Missouri Star trip in September, leaving the Guild with a balance of $3,127.97.

Communications Report—Karen Y. has drafted a 9-question survey which will be emailed to members. She will also forward an email about the 100th anniversary of the suffragette movement and the mini-quilt challenge: colors are yellow and purple, symbol is the sunflower.

Quilts of Valor—Jan S. reminded members to make no promises about quilt donations to veterans without first talking to the committee. Discussion followed about quilt numbers and the need for qualified long-armers to quilt these projects. Terri Cullen and Nancy Gavin volunteered their help for our guild. Karen will help with media coverage as follow-up to the Elks' donation.

Road Trip—to Missouri Star Quilts: Birthday Bash; final payments were collected.

Old Business—There were 6 members in attendance at the Guild's sewing day on August 3rd. One of the projects which was worked on was the red, white, and black memory quilt for a lung transplant patient. The Guild had previously agreed to donate the backing fabric for this.

New Business—Deb A. distributed patterns for neck pillows that are needed for use at the cancer center.

Name Tag Drawing Winner—Carrie Grove

Sunshine—Lucy T. (July), and Charlie W., Terri C., and Jan B. for August

Show and Tell / 12 x 12 and PIP

Kaci: a wall hanging made with fabric from Kentucky

Deb: small owl quilt

Jill C.: showed a few of the 50 cheerful pillow cases she recently made as hospital donations

Jill S.: pocket pouch with fabrics of our quilt challenge

Karen: QOV from one of our kits; and Dinner Plate Dahlia quilt from a class she took

Nancy W.: finished a quilt for a wedding gift

Sue.: fabric tote bag for trip; and king-sized quilt for nephew

Judy: finished project from a $5.00 quilt kit; and a graduation gift quilt in blacks and grays

Nancy G.: quilt top made from sale fabrics and fabric sample books

Lucy: salmon wall-hanging that can be “filleted” and turned inside out

Snacks---a bountiful picnic was supplied by Jan S. and Sheri, Mary and Judy.

Program—Jan S. and Sheri discussed details of the upcoming trip, including departure / return times and car parking, this year's charity project, the museum, shuttle, trunk shows, and J.C. Penney celebration. Members were referred to Missouri Star's web site and some YouTube videos for further details about the Birthday Bash itself.

Adjournment: 7:30 PM

Submitted by Carrie Grove