

CBQ Minutes: January 8, 2019

President Jan B. called the meeting to order at 5:32.

Membership: Teresa N. visited from Poplar; Karen volunteered to type a list of all members and their contact information.

Secretary's report: Minutes from our December meeting were posted on our web site.

Treasurer's report: Not available, as Lynn was not present.

Q of V: Jan S. reserved the library's meeting room for a work day—February 2, 2019—from 10-2:00. Individual dues of $5.00 are due by the end of January. Membership includes discounts on fabric used for QOV quilts. If there are questions, please contact any of the four committee members: Jan S., Sheri, Kaci, or Sue.

Sunshine: Sue G. noted birthdays for Kaci and Charlie.

Old Business: Short discussion of quilt show. Perhaps we could have members vote aye or nay? Perhaps we could have a raffle without a quilt show? Perhaps a bazaar instead? Nothing has been decided.

Show and Tell: Karen showed her finished “Illusion” quilt; Madonna showed her completed quilt top of hand-appliquéd dyed wool on black flannel, and asked for information about having it quilted.

Members also shared brief stories about a favorite quilt, blanket, or throw used for snuggling.

New Business: Shop Hop involves four stores this year: Ironwood, Ashland, Port Wing, and Hayward. There is still extra paint to finish Barn Quilts. AmericInn will be the location for a work day, 9:00-6:00, on Saturday, January 26th. Crafters of any genre or medium are welcome.

Adjournment at 6:10.

Program: Snacks were provided by Jan S. and Sheri, followed by a reading of The Quiltmaker's Gift (authored by Jeff Brumbeau) by librarian Diane Posner. Members wrapped themselves in their quilts, blankets, or throws for this heartwarming tale.
