

Guild meeting notes for 10/1

Call to order at 5:30

Secretary's report - minutes are on-line

Treasurer's report - Lynne is working on September report; role will transition to Amber after Communications - Karen reported some trip pictures are on Facebook, with the remaining ones to be posted shortly. Karen is working on a slide show for website. It should be up later in the week.

Old Business - Jan B reported the MQC trips went well

QOV - Jan S reported having a number of quilts in various stages of completion. She is still looking for nominees. Had some discussion about buying batting to have available should Terry have time to complete some of them.

New Business -

1. Thrivent request for Christmas ornaments for Seniors. Guild was contacted by Audrey Weaver in the Ashland Thrivent office about making 300 ornaments by the end of Oct for Ashland Co seniors. Jan did talk to her and told her we would need more notice to get this done so this year would not work but we could discuss doing it in the future. Members interested in contributing can contact Andrey directly.
2. Jan B. talked about doing the 12 by 12 challenge again due to some member interest. Based on the discussion, we will move forward on doing this again.
3. Sandy O. told the members present about the Free Spirit fabrics she and Charlie received while at the birthday bash. There are a number of precuts so we need to think about what we can do with this. They will likely bring them into the November meeting.
4. Deb Morrissey talked about the quilt show currently being held in Ironwood called "Historical Perspective of Quilting". It runs through the month of October and is at the Historic Ironwood Theatre.

Jan B. reported that Mary Lou Clement has moved out of the area and will no longer be a member of the guild

Sunshine - Lynne Divine received a fat quarter. There was a side discussion on what happened to the ones for Sept.

Show and tell - Sue Grahek had a table topper in southwest desert colors.

Meeting adjourned and QOV presentations made.
