-Call to order- President Sheri Swanson

-Welcome to new member Jean Rickman.

Also mentioned was Melissa Martinez, who joined our guild recently.

-Sandy Olson and Charlie Wroblewski announced and discussed our next Sew Day on Zoom. Date- Saturday, December 5 from 10AM to 4PM. Members can join the group at any time of the day and go off and on as desired. There will be fun and prizes. Members can work on any kind of project.

-Old Business:

-Jan Benson updated the guild on the CORE quilting project- More announcements will be forthcoming when firm plans are completed during 2021.

-Melissa Martinez will be coordinating the guild 12X12 projects. Please send a list of your projects to Melissa. She also announced that the Washburn Chamber is collecting warm clothes: socks, mittens, jackets, etc. New or gently used for local persons in this area.

-Show and Tell included many beautiful projects, both Christmas and regular projects. See pictures that follow.

-Deb M. and Jan S. led the games. The games included Snowman Names, Guess the Number of Candies (shown in a plastic container), Most Items on List in Sewing Room, Voting for the Best Decorations Space and The Price is Right. Prizes of gift certificates and jelly rolls were given to the winners. A wonderful time was had by all present.

-Deb M. announced the Fabric Patch's Facebook live online Christmas parties for the next 2 Wednesdays, Dec. 2 and 9 at 11AM.

-Jan S. announced program opportunities for future programs. Please contact Jan S. or Deb M. if any member would like to do a program for future meetings. Also members are invited to sign up for a brief description of a quilting influence at a future meeting. This can be a person or an experience. Watch for future emails on this.

-A few more Christmas quilts were shown.
