

Step 7:

Join the blocks in rows of 6, alternating Block A and Block B. Start each row with Block A. Press seams all the same direction (trust me!) You will have 8 rows--and 2 blocks left over.

Make 8 rows; alternating Block A and Block B.

Maybe your group would like to pool the leftover blocks and have a drawing for them.....or, put them together for a community service quilt.