

Chequamegon Bay Quilters- Minutes for September 6, 2022

The quilters met at AdventureUs, a Washburn business, which provides sewing supplies as well as gifts and fabric related items constructed at the store. They also repair items and sew customs orders. It was a very interesting tour of the place while some members made purchases.

The group then reconvened at the library to have a potluck supper with Lu O's husband cooking brats and burgers. Thanks to all who contributed.

The meeting was called to order by president Lu O at 6:55 PM. There were 22 members present, in person and 2 members on ZOOM.

Lu recognized Penny R. as a new member.

She opened the meeting calling for election of new officers for the coming year starting in October, 2022

President- Jill S was vice president this year so she will move to the president position.

Vice President- Jill S. made a motion and Sue G. seconded to nominate Nancy P.

Secretary- Teresa N. was nominated by Jill S. and seconded by Kaci P.

Treasurer- Amber E. has graciously volunteered to continue in this position.

Programs Coordination- No volunteers came forward for the position. A discussion was held and the guild will continue to encourage 1 or 2 members to step forward. Several options were considered in the discussion.

There was a call on a Sew Day coordinator. Kaci P. volunteered to take care of Sew Days for the next year.

Sunshine- Sue G. reported birthdays and gave cards to the September birthdays. They included Jean R., Lucy T., Sandy O. and Amber E. and Deb

Name tag drawing- Winner was Deb A.

QOV-Jan S. announced that plans are in place for the presentation on Oct.5 which will be held instead of the CBQ meeting. This will be at "The Club" in Washburn. Please arrive at 5:30 to finish setting up and Jan will send out a note asking for bar donations and more information.

Kay P. and Peggy H. gave the group updated information on the baby blankets project for Ukrainian refugees. The project has sent 320 blankets for the project. Melissa M. continues to work on the "Piece for Peace Quilts". Two were completed at the last Sew Day by the guild.

Lu reminded everyone to send pictures of completed challenges and 12X12 projects to Chequamegon Bay quilters email at Yahoo, so that she can post them on the website before each meeting.

Show and tell-

Quilters showing included Sandy O., Sue G., Jill S., Lu O., Jan S., Amber E., Jean R., Teresa M., Kaci P., Charlie W. and Deb M. Nice works ladies.

The Eleanor Burns is a 12X12 September bonus to show at the Oct. meeting for your name to be in the drawing. With October being the QOV presentation, the show and tell will happen at the November meeting.

The next monthly meeting is Oct. 5 the QOV presentation.
The meeting adjourned after 8PM.
